Responsibilities:

The successful candidate will:

- Develop and implement effective lessons embodying classical teaching principles
- Build appropriate relationships with the students that develop a passion for learning and a love for God and others
- Assist students in improving gross and fine motor skills
- Effectively assess the physical, moral, and spiritual growth of the students
- Be sensitive to behavioral concerns as they are developing and intervene immediately
- Demonstrate effective classroom management skills
- Compile and maintain all reports and documents required for student records
- Communicate graciously with students and their parents
- Create a welcoming, nurturing, and age-appropriate classroom environment
- Diligently enforce all school policies

Qualifications:

The successful candidate will possess:

- A vibrant Christian faith
- A Bachelor's Degree or higher in Physical Education or a related field
- A love for his/her subject matter and students
- An understanding of and adherence to Covenant's mission, philosophy of education, and organizational culture
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Effective interpersonal skills including the ability to interface with students, parents, colleagues and administrators with grace, sensitivity, and flexibility
- The ability to collaborate successfully with faculty and staff
- A commitment to a lifestyle of learning
- Previous teaching experience preferred

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to Dr. Tom Stoner, Head of School, at: tstoner@covenantclassicalschool.org. For more information about Covenant Classical School, please visit our website at covenantclassicalschool.org.
